

OUR PARTNERS

We take great pride in our heritage, the quality of our clothing and our relationships around the world. As the saying goes, it's the company you keep that makes you strong. And we work with some of the world's most respected and recognisable organisations to ensure we're surrounded by innovators, influencers and fun people who remind us it's a passion more than a business.

Ordnance Survey

Duke of Edinburgh

Dian Fossey Gorilla Fund

Discover Film

Galapagos Conservation Trust

English Heritage

Walking With The Wounded

WeTwo

AMBASSADORS

We work with some fantastic Ambassadors who through their amazing challenges or their everyday work, test our clothing to its limits and give us valuable feedback. We have photographers, filmmakers, conservationists and adventurers. They travel across many environments and a range of climates, inspiring us all to join their adventures.

Kevin the 'Lion Whisperer's' mission is to highlight the plight of lions in captivity and in the wild.

Kevin Richardson

Veterinary Surgeon and Founder of Saving the Survivors.

Dr Johan Marais

Faruk captures the lives and smiles of the people he meets, telling their stories in images and films.

Faruk Akbas

Sabah works to empower and enable women to experience the outdoors. A trained physiotherapist and founder of Summit Special a group encouraging minority groups in outdoor adventures.

Sabah Ahmed

From solo traversing the Transylvanian Alps in Winter to being a Survival Instructor, David is a self-confessed adventure junkie.

David Love

Connie spends most of her time studying herds of elephants in Botswana for her PhD.

Connie Allen

Craig has built a community of disabled people who, with families and friends, can experience the great outdoors together.

Craig Grimes